Temperature Rises to Highest Mark of Year, Reaching 93 Degrees on Government Thermometer

MIDDLEWEST IN HEAT'S GRIP

Storms in Iowa, Wisconsin and Illinois Moving Eastward and Expected to Cool Atmosphere

A terrific heat wave that had the middlewest in its grip today, made it self felt in Rush county, with temperatures mounting above ninety degrees for the first time this year.

The high mark recorded today at the county weather station in Maunzy, east of Rushville, was 93 degrees above zero, according to Elwood Kirkwood, federal weather observer for the county. Late Thursday the mercury went up to 91 degrees, but fell during the night.

Storms that will break the heat wave are expected by night, or during the night, and the temperature will fall several degrees, it is predicted.

Reports received by the Daily
Republican through the United Press revealed several deaths and numerous prostrations following in the wake of the excessive heat.

Thunder storms cooled off some of the affected territory in Iowa, Wisconsin and Illinois, and the storms were reported to be moving eastward.
Three deaths were charged to the heat in Chicago, the thermometer leaping 30 degrees within 12 hours, reaching a height of 94.

Ohio reported six dead. Temperatures there reached a maximum of 97 degrees. Two deaths were recorded in Iowa.

Missouri reported temperatures ranging from 92 to 110. In Indiana the thermometer reached a high of 105 degrees.

The east reported one death, a flagman succumbing to sun-stroke at Niagara Falls.

Storms swept Iowa today, interrupting wire communication.

Extensive Storm Damage

Elgin, Ill., June 20—Extensive storm damage from a wind and hail storm last night was reported in this vicinity.

Corn and gardens were greatly damaged. Lightning struck one farm west of Elgin and Will Lane, Jr., son of the owner, was badly cut by falling hail.

Break's Heat Wave

Belevadere, Ills., June 20—A terrific thunderstorm broke the season's first heat wave here early today, considerable damage suffering from wind.

At Kingston all windows fronting east were broken, at Henrietta hail stones two inches in diameter fell, breaking thousands of windows.

In Belevadere the show tent of the Sherman Stock Company was levelled
and many trees were up-rooted.

Dogs Crazed By Heat

Cleveland, O., June 20—More than a dozen persons were bitten here today by dogs crazed by the heat wave which continued unabated after taking five lives and seven prostrations.

Freeport, Ill. June 20—Northern Illinois and Southern Wisconsin were swept early today by a severe rain
and wind storm, Rockford, Ill., and vicinity apparently suffering most.
In the city of Rockford hundreds of trees were blown down, wires torn from poles and along Interurban line between Rockford and Beloit, Wis., many trolley poles were snapped off.

YOUNG MAN KILLED IN CARTHAGE PLANT

Kellas Porter is Electrocuted While Working in Loft Over Machine
Room of Factory

BODY WAS HELD BY CURRENT

Kellas Porter, an employe at the American Products Company at Carthage, was electrocuted and killed instantly this morning about ten o'clock, while working in a loft of the machine room of the plant.

Complete details concerning the accident were not learned. The plant at Carthage, which was damaged by fire several weeks ago, has been installing high powered electric lines from a high tension line run from Indianapolis, and owned by the Indiana Power Company.

The Carthage young man, who was about 30 years of age, was in a loft or on a scaffolding, and it is believed that he touched a light cord that had fallen over a high powered wire.
He was knocked down, still clinging to the wire, and it was necessary to turn off the current before his body could be reached.

Dr. J. M. Lee, county coroner was summoned and was investigating the accident today.

The deceased lived about two miles west of Carthage, and is survived by the widow and a little daughter.

ANDERSON TOWNSHIP WOMAN ASKS DIVORCE

Osa Moulton says Husband Failed to Provide Necessities For Herself
And Daughter

LEFT HOME FREQUENTLY

Osa Moulton, a resident of Anderson township, today filed suit in the circuit court, asking for a divorce from her husband, Lafayette Moulton. The complaint alleges that they were married January 14, 1902
and separated December 7, 1918.

The suit alleges that during their married life, the husband was at times indifferent toward the plaintiff, and was quarrelsome, and at times would leave home, and not tell his wife where he was going.
On other occasions, the complaint says, he would threaten her. The plaintiff says that he failed to provide her and their daughter with the necessities of life. The daughter is now married. Mrs. Moulton in her complaint says she is a nurse by occupation.

it was charged today by the state board of accounts in its report of a

Guthrie's office is in downtown Indianapolis and not in the state bank where the office is maintained.

TRUSTEES CONFER ON STADIUM REBUILDING

Meet With Frank C. Dailey, Indiana University Attorney, to Decide on Steps to be Taken

STADIUM FOUND TO BE FAULTY

Indianapolis, Ind., June 20—Trustees of Indiana University today conferred with Frank C. Dailey, attorney for the university, on action to be taken toward rebuilding the I. U. stadium.

Following a report of engineers of the state highway commission in which the stadium was found to be of faulty construction and poor workmanship, the trustees began plans to have the structure torn down and rebuilt.

A definite course of action, however, was not decided on pending the conference with Dailey.

William Lowe Bryan, president of the university, told the trustees the stadium should be rebuilt in time for the football season this fall, and asked that every precaution be taken to protect the university from financial loss.

The engineers' report said the concrete used in the supporting columns of the stadium was of subnormal strength, that it was poorly mixed,
and that proper precautions had not been taken to protect the concrete from freezing when poured in cold weather.

$35 IS CLEARED ON SOCIAL

About $35 was cleared by the congregation of the Little Blue River Baptist church congregation on the ning. The money will be applied to the building fund of the church, which is being used to construct a new house

of worship north of Rushville, on the site of the edifice which was destroyed by fire last October.

Work is progressing rapidly on the new building and it is hoped to have the work completed, so that the church may be occupied, within six weeks.

The building cost slightly over $10,000, according to present estimates, and will be a model country church, with a heating plant and electric lights.

The church is being constructed of brown tile, 5 by 8 by 12 inches, and the corners and pilasters will be faced with brick of the same color.

RELIGIOUS ISSUE IS DISTURBING

Democrats Who Agitated Klan Question to Make Political Medicine
Fearful of Results

MAY REACT UNFAVORABLY

Some Factions Insist on Denouncing Klan by Name—Imperial Wizard
to Direct Fight

By ROBERT J. BENDER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, June 20—The religious issue which for some weeks has been simmering under the surface of Democratic pre-convention politics, is now being cast up.

Party leaders, who have joined in agitating the Klan issue more to make a little political medicine than anything else, now are somewhat disturbed lest it defeat its own ends, react unfavorably on certain candidates and create great difficulty for the party.

There is no doubt the Klan question has been flung in the face of the McAdoo forces to help subdue if possible the superb confidence that saturates the atmosphere about the Vanderbilt hotel.

From the beginning, Democratic leaders who have party success more at heart than the interests of any one candidate have sought in vain to put a quietus on the Klan question.
Democratic success in such states
as Indiana and Ohio would seriously jeopardize if the Klan issue should bring about a party split.

But the situation is now getting beyond their control, George E. Brennan, Illinois leader, has become insistent for a plank in the platform denouncing the Klan by name. The Underwood forces are adding fuel to the fire. And the report here today that Imperial Wizard Evans of the Klan is coming Monday to direct the fight against an anti-Klan plank and endeavor to "put over" McAdoo, coupled with printed allegations that
the Klan supported McAdoo in various state primaries has served to stir the Smith faction.

The Klan, however, is but a symbol of the real issue—religion.

The chief argument used against Smith has been his religion, the anti-Smith crowd contending that, even if nominated, the New York governor could not be elected because the religious issue would be injected into the campaign.

And despite their confident predictions that McAdoo cannot command more than 430 votes at any time, the forces opposed to the former secretary of the treasury are beginning to fear that the somewhat extravagant claims of the McAdoo managers are based on a firmer foundation than was at first believed. Even the most ardent Smith supporters concede that he will be unable to muster more than 300 votes at the peak.

This situation has thrown the anti-
McAdoo crowd into something approaching a panic. Desperate efforts will be made to drag "favorite sons" opposed to McAdoo out of the race.
The argument is made that they have no chance for the nomination, but should they stubbornly remain in the race, McAdoo might suddenly develop the strength he claims and his nomination become a fact.

As the situation develops there is increasing likelihood of a "dark horse" being nominated. The letter written by John W. Davis to Robert L. Burch of Chicago, indicating that he is in

SUFFERED TWO YEARS SAYS MRS. F. J. QUINN

Stomach Trouble Affected Heart.
Says Topeka Lady

"When I got rid of indigestion, I got rid of what some thought was heart trouble, too," recently stated Mrs. Frank J. Quinn, 408 Lane St., Topeka, Kans.

"For two or three years before I took Tanlac gas would form on my stomach and often cause such a painful pressure against my heart that I would almost smother. These spells would attack me unawares and I was afraid to ride the street cars, sit in a show, go out alone. They would attack me in the night and nearly cut off my breath. My nerves were all upset, too, and I was so worried and miserable I could hardly stand it.

"A few bottles of Tanlac stopped my indigestion and set my stomach in order and I have had no more of those awful feelings about my heart since, although that was seven years ago. Since that time I have always been a friend of Tanlac. I take it in the spring time and my health has remained good. Tanlac did what nothing else would and I will always praise it."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 Million Bottles sold.

Iowa Boy, 11 Carries Off First Convention Honors

JOHN J. HUGHES, JR., New York, June 21—John J. Hughes, Jr., 11, of Des Moines, Ia., doesn't care a whoop about the wind-up of the Democratic Convention.

It could all be over now, as far as he is concerned. For he has received his appointment as official page, and has an engraved card to prove it.

"And I have had my picture taken, just like a regular candidate," he says triumphantly, "and all the kids back home will see it."

"Back home," young John is a seventh-grade school-boy, and a first-grade carrier of the Des Moines News after school hours.

His father is sergeant-at-arms of the convention. But it should not be implied that he uses his office to win the appointment for his son.

The boy and his smile carried the issue. And here's his picture to prove it.

OPENING GRAIN REVIEW

Chicago, June 20—Resumption of overdue reaction brought a lower opening in grains on the board of trade today.

Liquidation and selling by eastern longs featured the opening in wheat. Traders operated on a reduced scale. There was a noticeable falling off in demand.

Corn felt the effects of weakness in wheat. Domestic news was agreeable.

Oats was off with other grains and better crop news.

Slow demand created weakness in provisions.

AUDITORIUM DESTROYED

Muncie Ind. June 20—Fire thought to have started from a lighted cigarette thrown on the floor during a colored dance, early this morning destroyed the Campbell Auditorium, Muncie's largest indoor gathering place, with a loss of $75,000. Firemen fought the blaze for hours before it was under control, several homes in the neighborhood being damaged.

How to build up your Weight

TO be under weight often proves low fighting-power in the body. It often means you are minus nerve-power, minus red-cells in your blood, minus health, minus vitality.

It is serious to be minus, but the moment you increase the number of your red-blood-cells, you begin to become plus.

That's why S.S.S., since 1826, has meant to thousands of underweight men and women, a plus in their strength. Your body fills to the point of power, your flesh becomes firmer, the age lines that come from thinness disappear. You look younger, firmer, happier, and you feel it, too, all over your body. More red-blood-cells! S.S.S. will build them.

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

HEAT WAVE MAKES ITSELF FELT HERE

Many telephone lines were put out of commission in Stephenson and adjoining counties. More than an inch of rain fell.

92.7 In Indianapolis

Indianapolis, Ind., June 20—Cooler weather was promised today by the weather bureau after the first heat wave of the season.

The thermometer climbed to 92.7 at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the hottest June 19 with but two exceptions since 1888.

Despite the sudden rise in temperature, no heat prostrations were reported in Indianapolis. A strong breeze blowing throughout the day brought relief to the city.

Cities in all parts of the state suffered from the heat and in some places thermometers in front of business houses ran up as high as 104 and 105.

Breaking in Southwest

Kansas City, Mo., June 20—The heat wave which sent the mercury to record highs for June over the southwest was broken today. Temperatures were gradually dropping and generally ten points lower than yesterday when 95 was recorded in Kansas City, 102 in Oklahoma City and as high as 120 at other points. No casualties were reported.

Storm to Break Heat Wave

Columbus, Ohio, June 20—A storm sweeping down out of the northwest within the next 24 hours will break the heat wave which has claimed six lives in Ohio, the weather bureau predicted today.
Thunder showers and a change of wind promise immediate relief, the forecast said.
Thermometers here yesterday registered 92 degrees and similar temperatures were reported from throughout the state.

Heat Claims Five Lives

Cleveland, Ohio, June 20—Relief was promised today from the sweltering wave of heat which swept across the Great Lakes region yesterday, claiming five lives in this city.

The temperature stood at 89 at 5 p. m. a rise of 31 degrees in 13 hours. Early today the mercury was around 80. Thunderstorms and cooler weather was predicted for late today.

Three Deaths in Chicago

Chicago, June 20—Three deaths due to intense heat and several prostrations were reported to police today as long delayed high temperatures struck Chicago and the middle-west.

The mercury jumped from 64 degrees to 94 in less than 12 hours. The tenement districts, unprepared for summer weather, were hardest hit.

John Moffett, 47, a telephone repair man, dropped dead from the heat while working.

William Dales and John Barrett, both 20, drowned at different places. Both had sought relief from the heat by going bathing.

Paul Zure, 40, and an unidentified man of about the same age were prostrated by the heat and taken to hospitals.

Nineteen heat-crazed dogs were killed by police in various parts of the city.

As the second day of the heat wave opened, the city was faced with a possible ice famine due to a threatened strike of ice wagon drivers. More than 4,000 drivers are likely to walk out any moment, it was said, as negotiations between ice dealers and the drivers union were broken off. The drivers demand an increase of approximately 50 cents a day.

FALLS IN FRONT OF MOWER

Covington, Ind., June 20—The four-year-old son of Paddy Bodine fell in front of a mower driven by his father and had one foot amputated and the other nearly severed before the father could stop the machine.

Auburn—Jay Dilgard, a farmer, was demonstrating a new milking machine. The cow wasn't favorably impressed and Dilgard is still confined to his home with injuries.

FRIDAY, JUNE 20, 1924

God is gracious:—Thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness. Nehemiah, 9: 17.

Prayer:—We rejoice, O God, to know that like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear Him.

The Growing Season

A trip over Rush county right now would impress any unbiased person with the fact that this is the garden spot of the world.

There is nothing that quite compares with the view that one gets driving along a Rush county road, with green fields of waving wheat on one side and acres of growing corn on the other.

Then, occasionally, there is a field of clover that is beginning to bloom and give off a sweet aroma, and glistening oats that shine brightly in the warm June sun.

The traveler will see beautiful woodlands and pasture lands, dotted with prize cattle and hogs, grazing contentedly. Every few miles, a farm home, a model for its kind, may be seen nestled down in a clump of shade trees.

After a drive in the country, it's impossible to be pessimistic about Rush county's future. With the wonderful possibilities that it possesses, it sounds ridiculous for a man to stand on the street corner and complain about the weather or any other condition, that he fancies is not as it should be.

During this growing season, when crops are beginning to bear fruit and nature is doing its part in making man happy, it is ungrateful for anyone to complain.

The workers will be rewarded in due time. Those who are not idling their time away by complaining because the corn was late in getting started, or that something is going to

Hunt's Washington Letter

BY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—With the Republican convention out of the way and the "liberal" plank proposed by the Wisconsin delegation rejected by the G. O. P., the plans for the "La Follette convention" at Cleveland July 4 are gathering momentum. Reports reaching the headquarters of the Committee for Progressive Political Action, through which the conference was called, indicate that approximately 1000 "delegates" will be on hand when the session is called to order in the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers' auditorium.

Work of organizing the convention has been carried on under the supervision of Arthur Holder, former member of the Federal Board for Vocational Education and previously legislative representative of the American Federation of Labor.

Holder is the man who "sold" Congress the idea of providing vocational training as a chief agency for rehabilitating disabled veterans of the war.

THE central organization behind the La Follette candidacy, if the Cleveland conference, as now seems certain, puts the Wisconsin senator in the running for president, will be built around existing state organizations of the Conference for Progressive Political Action.

This movement already is organized in 32 states. In 20 states it is regarded as well entrenched, and in most of these it already has been through one or more campaigns and has played a decisive part in the election not only of state officers but also of congressmen and senators, notably Ship-stead, Brookhart and Magnus Johnson.

It is recognized, however, that happen to the wheat crop, but are diligently tending their crops intelligently, will come to the harvest time with the knowledge that they have done their part.

They have the satisfaction of knowing that they have been working with the finest soil to be found any-place and that if they have used their minds and their hands to advantage, they have done their part in making the most of their opportunities.

Observe The Hog

The hog has been maligned and libelled, according to John M. Evard, professor of animal husbandry of Iowa State College.

When we think of hogs we think of gluttons. When human beings gorge themselves on food, in derision people call them pigs.

But human beings can learn a lesson from the hog, according to this educator, who advises those who want to learn how to keep fat and fit, to study the occupants of the sty.

Long ago the hog was a slender, bony fellow, when the business of rooting for a living was more serious than it is now. Then man took him in hand and made life easy—and now look at him.

All this is because farmers treat hogs more like humans.

Hogs have profited by being domesticated, but some people, with all their superior ability, have not learned as much as the hog.

The hog is possessed of the same traits as man and he isn't as low in intelligence as the majority believe, but stands with the horse in reasoning power.

So let's give the hog credit for making something of his opportunities, which is more than can be said of people who waste or bury their talents.

It Doesn't Lack Variety, Anyway
(Toronto Globe)

Weather probabilities (almost any

Must Be That King of a State (Pittsburgh Gazette-Times)

If Iowa is satisfied with Brookhart the state is easily pleased.

a new name must be found if this body is to be continued as the medium through which the third-party campaign is to be conducted.
"Conference for Progressive Political Action" is too long and ponderous. If La Follette's candidacy is to make real headway, it will need a few catch lines to offset the slogans and phrases already being built around the Coolidge-Davies combination.

BACKERS of the Cleveland conference profess to feel that the La Follette cause came through the Cleveland convention with enhanced prestige. It is a matter of much pride that the La Follette supporters stuck fast to their principles, amid boating and hissing, but without any exhibition of bitterness or rancor on their part, and presented their demands in a dignified, proper manner, even though recognizing the futility of their protest.

NOT merely the "radical" middle west and west will be represented at the July 4 gathering where the La Follette candidacy will be launched.

Eastern industrial centers and New England, also, will have active workers on the ground, and an effort will be made to build up a following in what heretofore has been considered barren soil for insurgent seed.

More optimistic of the third-party boosters maintain that the La Follette candidacy will prove stronger than the third-party candidacy of Roosevelt in 1912.

The Roosevelt movement, these men insist, was purely personal and political. It had no economic basis tending to force a new alignment on national policies.

The present situation, however, is held as having its foundation purely on economic causes, and must be regarded as much more substantial and compelling.

KEEPING ONE EYE ON THE SCOREBOARD

Yesterday's Hero—Dazzy Vance of the Robins, who pitched his tenth victory when Brooklyn beat the Reds 3-1.

With the Yankees quiet, Detroit failed to close up the gap between first and second places when they divided a double bill with Cleveland, the Tigers losing the first 16 to 5 and taking the second 3 to 2.

Elmer Jacobs and Jimmy Ring staged a 10 inning hurling duel at Philadelphia, the Cubs winning 3 to 1.

After Van Glider had been chased from the mound in the first, the Browns rallied and won from the White Sox 8 to 7.

While Virgil Barnes was making the Braves swish the air, the Giants tapped effectively and won 4 to 1.

In an exhibition game at Toronto, the Pirates beat the Yankees 2 to 1. Ruth got an over the fence and back again smash, the wind preventing a circuit double.

RED SOX IN THIS AND OTHER YEARS

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, June 20—Lee Fohl's Boston Red Sox are in town for one of those crucial series things.

Boston is baseball mad this year, and a delegation was expected down from the Hub, bringing a live codfish to be presented to Fohl.

Not since 1918, back in the days when they used to call the Yankees the Highlanders, has a Boston team made a pennant threat.

The Huguenots have polished their bats and peeled their batting eyes and are set to knock this particular threat back somewhere around the second division.

For a team that certainly knows its way around the cellar—the Red Sox finished last in 1922 and 1923—Fohl's team is very obstinate about going back there.

The Sox stepped up into first place on June 4 by means of what the baseball writers call some opportune hitting against a couple of St. Louis pitchers. It was their first look around and, according to Fohl, the boys liked the view and went some more. Up in Boston they are polishing up the golden dome on Beacon Hill, preparatory to starting another Tea Party when the Red Sox get home next week. The Hub hasn't been as baseball batty in six years. A Saturday game in May drew 38,000 people off to Fenway Park.

It was hard to figure the Sox to set the pace, but upsets are as common in Beantown baseball history as on a squally Sunday on the Charles. The Braves used to pull one once in a while themselves, but not of late. In fact, the only consolation the Sox fans have had for the past two stove league seasons was that if their team was terrible, the Braves were just about as bad.

To one who hasn't followed the vicissitudes of the grand old game of recent years, this team of Fohl's looks like a combination salad, with plenty of pepper and a dash of garlic. There is old Bobby Veach, whom we knew in a Tiger uniform in those days so long ago that a home run amounted to something. There is Wamby—spell it out yourself—who used to make wild throws around the lot out in Cleveland. And Harris and Shanks and Pieinich and a number of other boys who weren't brought up with Bawston accents.

And then there's a younger looking outfielder, one Boone, who is crashing the apple like a house afire, up with the batting leaders of fast company for the first time in his life. Harris' hitting has been another helpful factor in the rise of the Red Sox.

Fohl has been getting some fair pitching, too.

FIGHTS AND FIGHTERS

New York—Johnny Dundee, featherweight and junior lightweight champion, meets Kid Sullivan in 10 rounds in Brooklyn tonight and has signed to meet Kid Kaplan at a later date.

New York—Pal Moran and Jack Zevie, both contenders for meeting Benny Leonard, will stage a 12 round elimination contest at Queensboro stadium Monday night.

Michigan City, Ind.—Abe Goldstein, world's bantam title holder, will box Connie Curry, Sioux City, in a 10-round match as the semi-windup to the Stribling-Greb fight here July 4th.

MRS. MALLORY ELIMINATED

Roehampton, Eng., June 20—Mrs. Molla Mallory was eliminated in the Roehampton invitation tennis tournament today by Miss Eleanor Goss, American 6-2, 4-6, 7-5. It was the fifth round of the tournament. Miss Goss will play Miss H. J. Jessup, another American, in the semi-final round.

Chicago—Joe Parelli, middleweight wrestling champion, last night defeated Jim Kantanos, Madison, Wis., in two straight falls.

Chicago—Mike Romano, Italian grappler, is training for his title match here with Champion Ed "Strangler" Lewis, despite the ruling of the athletic commission against the bout. The date for the proposed match has not been set.

SEVERAL STATE ROADS CLOSED FOR EXTENSIVE IMPROVEMENTS

Indianapolis, Ind., June 20—The entire Westfield gap on State Road No. 1 is now open and traffic may proceed on pavement from Midianapolis north to the Tipton-Hamilton county line. However, through traffic should detour around the six mile gap either the east or west at Westfield to get around the six mile gap being paved at the aforementioned point. The Tipton-Hamilton county line gap will be paved in the next two weeks weather permitting. Allowing for proper period of curing it is hardly possible that traffic will be going all the way from Indianapolis to Kokomo on pavement before the next five weeks, according to John D. Williams, state highway director.

In the commission's traffic bulletin issued today showing the condition of state roads for the week of June 21-28, Mr. Williams calls attention to extensive improvements on the Baileytown gap on the Dunes Highway, No. 42. Maintenance forces surface treated the road which is now dustless and will carry traffic until the over head bridge to eliminate two hazardous railroad crossings can be constructed. This is expected to be completed next year. Owing to the unusually heavy traffic on this road it was impossible to maintain the open stretch as a gravel or stone road.

The bulletin shows that Road No. 24 will be closed several days 13 miles north of Salem for culvert construction with good run-arounds provided. No. 26 is closed in North Madison for resurfacing, detour marked, and No. 27 is closed for a mile north of Marion for construction. FEWER SPEEDING ARRESTS

Less Violation of Law Following Drastic Action by Police

Indianapolis, Ind., June 20—A noticeable decrease in arrests for speeding marked the fifth day of the police war against motor law violators here today.

The decrease was attributed to sentences dealt out forty motorists yesterday ordering them to store their cars from thirty to ninety days "and drive no other automobile".

Other plans in force by police to make the battle effective is rides to the police station in the patrol wagon and equipment of bond to gain freedom until the cases are called in court.

Fifteen violators were scheduled for appearance today.

BRIDGE CONTRACTS HAVE BEEN OPENED

State Highway Commission Considers Proposals For 31 Bridges Planned in 13 Counties

TOTAL COST IS $203,869

Indianapolis, Ind., June 20—Officials of the State highway commission were today going over bids opened this week for thirty one bridges in thirteen counties preparing to awarding contracts for the structures. The contracts will be let within the next ten days.

The total expenditure will be $203,869.77, on the basis of low bids. This total is far less than highway officials have anticipated. Estimates made by department engineers indicated the structures would cost $260,703.86.

Bridge builders in all parts of the country are entered into the competition for the contracts. Sixty-six bids were received. This is the second bridge letting of the year. Construction activities costing nearly $500,000 were contracted for at the first letting.

The most pretentious structure to be built under this letting will be a 200 foot bridge over Patoka River in Gibson county. The commission is now debating the merits of construction style following receipt of bids very near the same figure for substructure style and superstructure style.

Bidders shaved more than $5000 from the estimated cost of both style bridges. E. C. Wright, Bloomfield bid $19,045.35 to be low on the substructure. The estimate was $27,799.26.

The St. Louis Structural Steel Company bid $18,920.50 on the superstructure. The estimate was $24,788.58.

"The Breaking Point"

Herbert Brenon's "The Breaking Point" is another splendid action-romance by the man who made "The Spanish Dancer." Nita Naldi, Patsy Ruth Miller, George Fawcett and Matt Moore are featured in the production, which opened at the Princess Theatre today.

It's an entertaining combination of society love drama and murder mystery, with a dash of the scientific angle that made "Black Oxen".

Nita Naldi plays the same kind of a canny role she had in "The Ten Commandments". Matt Moore is the hero. Miss Miller is cast as Elizabeth Wheeler, Moore's sweetheart, and George Fawcett is a kindly old doctor. Some cast!

"The Breaking Point" was extremely popular as both a book and play by Mary Roberts Rinehart. There never was a better piece of screen material written, and Julie Herne and Edfrid Bingham have done wonders with the adaptation. There are scenes the author never even thought of that go a long way to make "The Breaking Point" not only one of the most gripping, but also one of the most entertaining productions we have seen in many months.

Naturally, it's a Paramount.

"The Girl Who Came Back"

Audiences who view the chill prison corridor in which occurs one phase of the action of Tom Forman's new production of "The Girl Who Came Back" soon to be seen at the Castle theatre, probably will have little conception of the infinite care required in its construction.

For this seemingly simple setting required far more effort on the part of technical experts and even proved as costly in actual financial outlay as did the big ball room setting in such productions as "Poor Men's Wives". In order to reproduce every detail of the historic prison that served as a model for the studio setting experts used photographs and sketches, drawn to scale. Not a single window, door or grating was made in the Schulberg studio mills, but were constructed by hand in order that the knobs, pegs and other details might be placed at exactly the proper distance apart.

Director Forman, who spent months at Sing Sing prison studying procedure in the big penal institution before filming "The City of Silent Men", has made a study of criminology and the modern methods of fighting crime. Many of his theories have been used before the camera for the first time in the filming of this unusual Al Lichtman attraction.

The cast with which the stage was visualized for the screen include such favorites as Miriam Cooper, Kenneth Harlan, Gaston Glass, Ethel Shannon, Joseph Dowling, Frederick Mel-alesta, Mary Culver, and Zazu Pitts.

Was skeptical of Kellogg's Bran until it gave him back his health

Naturally Mr. Carter—whose letter follows—was skeptical. He had tried practically everything for the relief of constipation. All had failed. But Kellogg's Bran brought him permanent relief, just as it has done for thousands of others. Read his letter:

Gentlemen:

I am 43 years old, and have been for years a great sufferer from constipation. I had to resign a clerical position because of rushes of blood to my head, some of which caused me to fall to the ground. I took an outdoor laboring job and tried for the first time, skeptically I admit, your Krumbled Bran. The result has been wonderful. I began to be normal after I had been on the Bran about three days. No more enemata, no more Old Dr. So-and-So's Pills, Epsom salts by the ton, etc., ad infinitum! You have the most wonderful product for constipation I have ever seen or tried. Yours very gratefully,

Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, does not irritate the intestines like drugs and pills. It acts exactly as nature acts. Eaten regularly, it is guaranteed to relieve permanently the most chronic case of constipation, or your grocer will return your money.

You will like the exclusive, nut-like flavor of Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled. Eat two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases with every meal. Eat it with milk or cream and in the recipes on every package. Sold by all grocers. Made in Battle Creek.

HEAT WAVE MAKES ITSELF FELT HERE

of Year, Reaching 93 Degrees on Government Thermometer

MIDDLEWEST IN HEAT'S GRIP

Storms in Iowa, Wisconsin and Illinois Moving Eastward and Expected to Cool Atmosphere

A terrific heat wave that had the
middlewest in its grip today, made itself felt in Rush county, with temperatures mounting above ninety degrees for the first time this year.

The high mark recorded today at the county weather station in Mauney, east of Rushville, was 93 degrees above zero, according to Elwood
Kirkwood, federal weather observer
for the county. Late Thursday the mercury went up to 91 degrees, but fell during the night.

Storms that will break the heat
wave are expected by night, or during
the night, and the temperature will fall several degrees, it is predicted.

Reports received by the Daily
Republican through the United Press
revealed several deaths and numerous prostrations following in the wake of the excessive heat.

Thunder storms cooled off some of the affected territory in Iowa, Wisconsin and Illinois, and the storms
were reported to be moving eastward.
Three deaths were charged to the
heat in Chicago, the thermometer
leaping 30 degrees within 12 hours,
reaching a height of 94.

Ohio reported six dead. Temperatures there reached a maximum of 97 degrees. Two deaths were recorded in Iowa.

Missouri reported temperatures
ranging from 92 to 110. In Indiana
the thermometer reached a high of 105 degrees.

The east reported one death, a flagman succumbing to sun-stroke at Niagara Falls.

Storms swept Iowa today, interrupting wire communication.

Extensive Storm Damage

Elgin, Ill., June 20—Extensive
storm damage from a wind and hail storm last night was reported in this vicinity.

Corn and gardens were greatly damaged. Lightning struck one farm
west of Elgin and Will Lane, Jr., son of the owner, was badly cut by falling hail.

Break's Heat Wave

Belevadere, Ills., June 20—A terrific thunderstorm broke the season's
first heat wave here early today, considerable damage suffering from wind.

At Kingston all windows fronting
east were broken, at Henrietta hail stones two inches in diameter fell,
breaking thousands of windows.

In Belevadere the show tent of the Sherman Stock Company was levelled
and many trees were up-rooted.

Dogs Crazy By Heat

Cleveland, O., June 20—More
than a dozen persons were bitten here
today by dogs crazed by the heat
wave which continued unabated after taking five lives and seven prostrations.

Freeport, Ill., June 20—Northern Illinois and Southern Wisconsin were swept early today by a severe rain
and wind storm, Rockford, Ill., and
vicinity apparently suffering most.
In the city of Rockford hundreds of
trees were blown down, wires torn
from poles and along Interurban line
between Rockford and Beloit, Wis.,
many trolley poles were snapped off.

YOUNG MAN KILLED IN CARTHAGE PLANT

Kellas Porter is Electrocuted While Working in Loft Over Machine
Room of Factory

Kellas Porter, an employe at the American Products Company at Carthage, was electrocuted and killed
instantly this morning about ten o'clock, while working in a loft of
the machine room of the plant.

Complete details concerning the accident were not learned. The plant at Carthage, which was damaged by fire several weeks ago, has been installing high powered electric
lines from a high tension line run from Indianapolis, and owned by the Indiana Power Company.

The Carthage young man, who was
about 30 years of age, was in a loft
or on a scaffolding, and it is believed that he touched a light cord that
had fallen over a high powered wire.
He was knocked down, still clinging
to the wire, and it was necessary to turn off the current before his body
could be reached.

Dr. J. M. Lee, county coroner was summoned and was investigating the accident today.

The deceased lived about two miles west of Carthage, and is survived by the widow and a little daughter.

DAUGHTERS TO HAVE THEIR INNING SUNDAY

The Rev. L. E. Brown Sends out 75 Letters, Asking Them to Express Their Views Freely

OTHER SPECIAL SERMONS

"Daughters of Today" are going to have their inning at the Main Street Christian church Sunday evening when the pastor, the Rev. L. E.
Brown, preaches on the subject,
"Parents as Their Daughters See Them."

The Rev. Mr. Brown sent out letters to seventy-five daughters of Rushville, requesting them to express freely and frankly their opinions of the daughter problem of today. Their answers will be made part of the basis of the Sunday evening sermon, and extracts from the letter will be read.

This will be a companion sermon to the one on "Daughters of Today" last Sunday night, when the Rev. Mr.
Brown read extracts from letters written by mothers in response to inquiries he sent out, asking opinions about the "daughter problem".

The Rev. H. W. Hargett will continue his series of sermons on the general theme, "Watch Your Eyes", Sunday morning the subject at that time to be "The Right Eye". The Rev.
R. W. Sage is preaching a series of sermons on "The Church".

That State Attorneys General Will be Consulted

PRICE FIXING IS ALLEGED

(By United Press)
Washington, June 20—Attorney General Stone today announced he would call a conference here early in July of attorneys general of states most interested in the alleged price fixing conspiracy in the gasoline industry.

Stone said he had received the federal trade commission's report on the industry and that the justice department inquiry would be completed shortly.

"After I have become acquainted with the contents of these reports some time early in July, I expect to have a conference with the attorneys general of certain of the states who are interested in the matter," said Stone.

"Thereafter I hope to be able to make a more specific statement of the results of these investigations."

Stone revealed the inquiry conducted by the department of justice has been directed "more specifically to ascertaining whether there has been any violation by the several Standard Oil companies."

ANDERSON TOWNSHIP WOMAN ASKS DIVORCE

Osa Moulton says Husband Failed to Provide Necessities For Herself

Osa Moulton, a resident of Anderson township, today filed suit in
the circuit court, asking for a divorce from her husband, Lafayette Moulton. The complaint alleges that they were married January 14, 1902
and separated December 7, 1918.

The suit alleges that during their married life, the husband was at
times indifferent toward the plaintiff, and was quarrelsome, and at times would leave home, and not
tell his wife where he was going.
On other occasions, the complaint
says, he would threaten her. The plaintiff says that he failed to provide her and their daughter with the necessities of life. The daughter is now married. Mrs. Moulton in her complaint says she is a nurse by occupation.

SAYS HE MISUSED FUNDS

Report Says Department Head Bought Office Furniture Illegally

Indianapolis, Ind., June 20—Furniture in the office of W. A. Guthrie of Dupont, Ind., chairman of the board of directors of the state department of conservation, was paid for with funds contrary to statutes.
It was charged today by the state board of accounts in its report of a survey of the conservation department.

Guthrie's office is in downtown Indianapolis and not in the state house. He is an officer in a local bank where the office is maintained.

Other charges contained in the report charged that Guthrie attended a meeting of the Rivers and Harbors congress in Washington, the trip paid for by the state.

TRUSTEES CONFER ON STADIUM REBUILDING

Meet With Frank C. Dailey, Indiana University Attorney, to Decide on Steps to be Taken

Indianapolis, Ind., June 20—Trustees of Indiana University today conferred with Frank C. Dailey, attorney for the university, on action to be taken toward rebuilding the I. C. stadium.

Following a report of engineers of
the state-highway commission in which the stadium was found to be
of faulty construction and poor
workmanship, the trustees began
plans to have the structure torn down
and rebuilt.

A definite course of action, however, was not decided on pending the conference with Dailey.

William Lowe Bryan, president of
the university, told the trustees the
stadium should be rebuilt in time for
the football season this fall, and
asked that every precaution be taken
to protect the university from financial loss.

The engineers' report said the concrete used in the supporting columns
of the stadium was of subnormal
strength, that it was poorly mixed,
and that proper precautions had not
been taken to protect the concrete
from freezing when poured in cold weather.

NEW CHURCH WILL BE FINISHED IN 6 WEEKS

Being Constructed by Little Blue River Baptist Congregation and Will be Model of its Kind

$35 IS CLEARED ON SOCIAL

About $35 was cleared by the congregation of the Little Blue River Baptist church congregation on the ice cream social at the Jackson township school building Thursday evening. The money will be applied to the building fund of the church, which is being used to construct a new house
of worship north of Rushville, on the site of the edifice which was destroyed by fire last October.

Work is progressing rapidly on the new building and it is hoped to have
the work completed, so that the church may be occupied, within six weeks.

The building cost slightly under $10,000, according to present estimates, and will be a model country
church, with a heating plant and
electric lights.

The church is being constructed of
the corners and pilasters will be faced with brick of the same color.

Democrats Who Agitated Klan Question to Make Political Medicine
Fearful of Results

Some Factions Insist on Denouncing
Klan by Name—Imperial Wizard
to Direct Fight

By ROBERT J. BENDER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, June 20—The religious
issue which for some weeks has been simmering under the surface of Democratic pre-convention politics, is now being cast up.

Party leaders, who have joined in agitating the Klan issue more to make a little political medicine than
anything else, now are somewhat
disturbed lest it defeat its own ends,
react unfavorably on certain candidates and create great difficulty for
the party.

There is no doubt the Klan question has been hung in the face of the McAdoo forces to help subdue if possible the superb confidence that saturates the atmosphere about the Vanderbilt hotel.

From the beginning, Democratic
leaders who have party success more
at heart than the interests of any one candidate have sought in vain to put a quietus on the Klan question.
Democratic success in such states
as Indiana and Ohio would seriously jeopardize if the Klan issue should
bring about a party split.

But the situation is now getting
beyond their control, George E. Brennan, Illinois leader, has become insistent for a plank in the platform denouncing the Klan by name. The Underwood forces are adding fuel to
the fire. And the report here today
that Imperial Wizard Evans of the Klan is coming Monday to direct the fight against an anti-Klan plank and
endeavor to "put over" McAdoo,
coupled with printed allegations that
the Klan supported McAdoo in various state primaries has served to stir the Smith faction.

The Klan, however, is but a symbol of the real issue—religion.

The chief argument used against
Smith has been his religion, the anti-
Smith crowd contending that, even if nominated, the New York governor
could not be elected because the religious issue would be injected into
the campaign.

And despite their confident predictions that McAdoo cannot command
more than 430 votes at any time, the
forces opposed to the former secretary of the treasury are beginning to fear that the somewhat extravagant
claims of the McAdoo managers are based on a firmer foundation than
was at first believed. Even the most ardent Smith supporters concede that he will be unable to muster more than 300 votes at the peak.

This situation has thrown the anti-
McAdoo crowd into something approaching a panic. Desperate efforts will be made to drag "favorite sons"
opposed to McAdoo out of the race.
The argument is made that they have
no chance for the nomination, but
should they stubbornly remain in the race, McAdoo might suddenly develop the strength he claims and his nomination become a fact.

As the situation develops there is increasing likelihood of a "dark horse"
being nominated. The letter written by John W. Davis to Robert L. Borch
of Chicago, indicating that he is in

SUFFERED TWO YEARS SAYS MRS. F. J. QUINN

Stomach Trouble Affected Heart,
Says Topeka Lady

"When I got rid of indigestion I got rid of what some thought was heart trouble, too," recently stated Mrs. Frank J. Quinn, 408 Lime St., Topeka, Kans.

"For two or three years before I took Tanlac gas would form on my stomach and often cause such a painful pressure against my heart that I would almost smother. These spells would attack me unawares and I was afraid to ride the street cars, sit in a show, go out alone. They would attack me in the night and nearly cut off my breath. My nerves were all upset, too, and I was so worried and miserable I could hardly stand it.

"A few bottles of Tanlac stopped my indigestion and set my stomach in order and I have had no more of those awful feelings about my heart since, although that was seven years ago. Since that time I have always been a friend of Tanlac. I take it in the spring time and my health has remained good. Tanlac did what

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 Million Bottles sold.

Iowa Boy, 11, Carries Off First Convention Honors

JOHN J. HUGHES, JR.
New York, June 21—John J. Hughes, Jr., 11, of Des Moines, Ia., doesn't care a whoop about the wind-up of the Democratic Convention.

It could all be over now, as far as he is concerned. For he has received his appointment as official page, and has an engraved card to prove it.

"And I have had my picture taken, just like a regular candidate," he says triumphantly. "and all the kids back home will see it."

"Back home," young John is a seventh-grade school-boy, and a first-grade carrier of the Des Moines News after school hours.

His father is sergeant-at-arms of the convention. But it should not be implied that he uses his office to win the appointment for his son.

The boy and his smile carried the issue. And here's his picture to prove it.

Chicago, June 20—Resumption of overdue reaction brought a lower opening in grains on the board of trade today.

Liquidation and selling by eastern buyers featured the opening in wheat. Traders operated on a reduced scale. There was a noticeable falling off in demand.

Corn felt the effects of weakness in wheat. Domestic news was agreeable.

Oats was off with other grains and better crop news.

Many telephone lines were put out of commission in Stephenson and adjoining counties. More than an inch of rain fell.

92.7 in Indianapolis
Indianapolis, Ind., June 20—Cooler weather was promised today by the weather bureau after the first heat wave of the season.

The thermometer climbed to 92.7 at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the hottest June 19 with but two exceptions since 1888.
Despite the sudden rise in temperature, no heat prostrations were reported in Indianapolis. A strong breeze blowing throughout the day brought relief to the city.
Cities in all parts of the state suffered from the heat and in some places thermometers in front of business houses ran up as high as 104 and 105.

Breaking in Southwest
Kansas City, Mo., June 20—The heat wave which sent the mercury to record highs for June over the southwest was broken today. Temperatures were gradually dropping and generally ten points lower than yesterday when 95 was recorded in Kansas City, 102 in Oklahoma City and as high as 120 at other points. No casualties were reported.

Storm to Break Heat Wave
Columbus, Ohio, June 20—A storm sweeping down out of the northwest within the next 24 hours will break the heat wave which has claimed six lives in Ohio, the weather bureau predicted today.

Thunder showers and a change of wind promise immediate relief, the forecast said.
Thermometers here yesterday registered 92 degrees and similar temperatures were reported from throughout the state.

Heat Claims Five Lives

Cleveland, Ohio, June 20—Relief was promised today from the sweltering wave of heat which swept across the Great Lakes region yesterday, claiming five lives in this city.
The temperature stood at 89 at 5 p. m. a rise of 31 degrees in 13 hours. Early today the mercury was around 80. Thunderstorms and cooler weather was predicted for late today.

Three Deaths in Chicago

Chicago, June 20—Three deaths due to intense heat and several prostrations were reported to police today as long delayed high temperatures struck Chicago and the middle-west.
The mercury jumped from 64 degrees to 94 in less than 12 hours. The tenement districts, unprepared for summer weather, were hardest hit.
John Moffett, 47, a telephone repair man, dropped dead from the heat while working.
William Dales and John Barrett, both 20, drowned at different places. Both had sought relief from the heat by going bathing.
Paul Zure, 40, and an unidentified man of about the same age were prostrated by the heat and taken to hospitals.
Nineteen heat-crazed dogs were killed by police in various parts of the city.
As the second day of the heat wave opened, the city was faced with a possible ice famine due to a threatened strike of ice wagon drivers. More than 4,000 drivers are likely to walk out any moment, it was said, as negotiations between ice dealers and the drivers union were broken off. The drivers demand an increase of approximately 50 cents a day.

FALLS IN FRONT OF MOWER

Covington, Ind., June 20—The four-year-old son of Paddy Bodine fell in front of a mower driven by his father and had one foot amputated and the other nearly severed before the father could stop the machine.

God is gracious:—Thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness. Nehemiah, 9: 17.
Prayer:—We rejoice, O God, to know that like as a father pitieeth his children, so the Lord pitieeth them that fear Him.

The Growing Season

A trip over Rush county right now would impress any unbiased person with the fact that this is the garden spot of the world.

There is nothing that quite compares with the view that one gets driving along a Rush county road, with green fields of waving wheat on one side and acres of growing corn on the other.

Then, occasionally, there is a field of clover that is beginning to blossom and give off a sweet aroma, and glistening oats that shine brightly in the warm June sun.

The traveler will see beautiful woodlands and pasture lands, dotted with prize cattle and hogs, grazing contentedly. Every few miles, a farm home, a model for its kind, may be seen nestled down in a clump of shade trees.

After a drive in the country, it's impossible to be pessimistic about Rush county's future. With the wonderful possibilities that it possesses, it sounds ridiculous for a man to stand on the street corner and complain about the weather or any other condition, that he fancies is not as it should be.

During this growing season, when crops are beginning to bear fruit and nature is doing its part in making man happy, it is ungrateful for anyone to complain.

The workers will be rewarded in due time. Those who are not adding their time away by complaining because the corn was late in getting started, or that something is going to

Hunt's Washington Letter

BY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, D. C.—With the Republican convention out of the way and the "liberal" plank proposed by the Wisconsin delegation rejected by the G. O. E., the plans for the "La Follette convention" at Cleveland July 4 are gathering momentum. Reports reaching the headquarters of the Committee for Progressive Political Action, through which the conference was called, indicate that approximately 1000 "delegates" will be on hand when the session is called to order in the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers' auditorium.

Work of organizing the convention has been carried on under the supervision of Arthur Holder, former member of the Federal Board for Vocational Education and previously legislative representative of the American Federation of Labor.

Holder is the man who "sold" Congress the idea of providing vocational training as a chief agency for rehabilitating disabled veterans of the war.

The central organization behind the La Follette candidacy, if the Cleveland conference, as now seems certain, puts the Wisconsin senator in the running for president, will be built around existing state organizations of the Conference for Progressive Political Action.

This movement already is organized in 32 states. In 20 states it is regarded as well entrenched, and in most of these it already has been through one or more campaigns and has played a decisive part in the election not only of state officers but also of congressmen and senators, notably Shipstead, Brookhart and Magnus Johnson.

It is recognized, however, that a new name must be found if this body is to be continued as the medium through which the third-party campaign is to be conducted. "Conference for Progressive Political Action" is too long and ponderous. If La Follette's candidacy is to make real headway, it will need a few catch lines to offset the slogans and phrases already being built around the Coolidge-Dawes combination.

BACKERS of the Cleveland conference profess to feel that the La Follette cause came through the Cleveland convention with enhanced prestige. It is a matter of much pride that the La Follette supporters stuck fast to their principles, amid booing and hissing, but without any exhibition of bitterness or rancor on their part, and presented their demands in a dignified, proper manner, even though recognizing the futility of their protest.

NOT merely the "radical" middle west and west will be represented at the July 4 gathering where the La Follette candidacy will be launched. Eastern industrial centers and New England, also, will have active workers on the ground, and an effort will be made to build up a following in what heretofore has been considered barren soil for insurgent seed.

More optimistic of the third-party boosters maintain that the La Follette candidacy will prove stronger than the third-party candidacy of Roosevelt in 1912.

The Roosevelt movement, these men insist, was purely personal and political. It had no economic basis tending to force a new alignment on national policies.

The present situation, however, is held as having its foundation purely on economic causes, and must be regarded as much more substantial and compelling.

RED SOX IN THIS AND OTHER YEARS

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, June 20—Lee Fohl's Boston Red Sox are in town for one of those crucial series things.

Boston is baseball mad this year, and a delegation was expected down from the Hub, bringing a live codfish to be presented to Fohl.

Not since 1918, back in the days when they used to call the Yankees the Highlanders, has a Boston team made a pennant threat.

The Hugmen have polished their bats and peeled their batting eyes and are set to knock this particular threat back somewhere around the second division.

For a team that certainly knows its way around the cellar—the Red Sox finished last in 1922 and 1923—Fohl's team is very obstinate about going back there.

The Sox stepped up into first place on June 4 by means of what the baseball writers call some opportune hitting against a couple of St. Louis pitchers. It was their first look around and, according to Fohl, the boys liked the view and went some more.

Up in Boston they are polishing up the golden dome on Beacon Hill, preparatory to starting another Tea Party when the Red Sox get home next week. The Hub hasn't been as baseball batty in six years. A Saturday game in May drew 38,000 people off to Fenway Park.

It was hard to figure the Sox to set the pace, but upsets are as common in Beantown baseball history as on a squally Sunday, on the Charles. The Braves used to pull one once in a while themselves, but not of late. In fact, the only consolation the Sox fans have had for the past two stove league seasons was that if their team was terrible, the Braves were just about as bad.

To one who hasn't followed the vicissitudes of the grand old game of recent years, this team of Fohl's looks like a combination salad, with plenty of pepper and a dash of garlic. There is old Bobby Veach, whom we knew in a Tiger uniform in those days so long ago that a home run amounted to something. There is Wamby—spell it out yourself—who used to make wild throws around the lot out in Cleveland. And Harris and Shanks and Picinich and a number of other boys who weren't brought up with Bawston accents.

And then there's a younger looking outfielder, one Boone, who is crashing the apple like a house afire, up with the batting leaders of fast company for the first time in his life. Harris' hitting has been another helpful factor in the rise of the Red Sox.

Fohl has been getting some fair pitching, too.

New York—Johnny Dundee, featherweight and junior lightweight champion, meets Kid Sullivan in 10 rounds in Brooklyn tonight and has signed to meet Kid Kaplan at a later date.

New York—Pal Moran and Jack Zevic, both contenders for meeting Benny Leonard, will stage a 12 round elimination contest at Queensboro stadium Monday night.

Michigan City, Ind.—Abe Goldstein, world's bantam title holder, will box Connie Curry, Sioux City, in a 10-round match as the semi-windup to the Stribling-Greb fight here July 4th.

MRS. MALLORY ELIMINATED

Roehampton, Eng., June 20—Mrs. Mollie Mallory was eliminated in the Roehampton invitation tennis tournament today by Miss Eleanor Goss, American 6-2, 4-6, 7-5. It was the fifth round of the tournament. Miss Goss will play Miss H. J. Jessup, another American, in the semi-final round.

Chicago—Joe Parelli, middleweight wrestling champion, last night defeated Jim Kantanos, Madison, Wis., in two straight falls.

Chicago—Mike Romano, Italian grappler, is training for his title match here with Champion Ed "Strangler" Lewis, despite the ruling of the athletic commission against the bout. The date for the proposed match has not been set.

SEVERAL STATE ROADS CLOSED FOR EXTENSIVE IMPROVEMENTS

Indianapolis, Ind., June 20—The entire Westfield gap on State Road No. 1 is now open and traffic may proceed on pavement from Midianapolis north to the Tipton-Hamilton county line. However, through traffic should detour around the six mile gap either the east or west at Westfield to get around the six mile gap being paved at the aforementioned point. The Tipton-Hamilton county line gap will be paved in the next two weeks weather permitting. Allowing for proper period of curing it is hardly possible that traffic will be going all the way from Indianapolis to Kokomo on pavement before the next five weeks, according to John D. Williams, state highway director.

In the commission's traffic bulletin issued today showing the condition of state roads for the week of June 21-28, Mr. Williams calls attention to extensive improvements on the Baileytown gap on the Dunes Highway, No. 42. Maintenance forces surface treated the road which is now dustless and will carry traffic until the over head bridge to eliminate two hazardous railroad crossings can be constructed. This is expected to be completed next year. Owing to the unusually heavy traffic on this road it was impossible to maintain the open stretch as a gravel or stone road.

The bulletin shows that Road No. 24 will be closed several days 13 miles north of Salem for culvert construction with good run-arounds provided. No. 26 is closed in North Madison for resurfacing, detour marked, and No. 27 is closed for a mile north of Marion for construction. The Elkhart river bridge is out on the same road between New Paris and Waterford with detour marked of fair surface only. Bridge construction on 13, six miles north of Muncie is completed and traffic is using the structure.

Road conditions are set forth in the bulletin as follows:

No. 1—Pavement from Indianapolis to the Tipton-Hamilton county line. However, north and northwest traffic from Indianapolis should take 33 at Westfield and go west to 15, thence on 15 to 29, and east on No. 1 to avoid the Tipton-Hamilton county line construction project. North bound traffic from Indianapolis take Allisonville road to Noblesville, thence county road to Tipton. At Tipton take No. 19 back to No. 1. No. 1 is closed from Kokomo to Peru for construction. Traffic north from Kokomo take county road just east of Bunker Hill. South of Indianapolis No. 1 is closed at north edge of Seymour for paving. Detour via Dandletown between Seymour and Crothersville account construction at upper Muscatatuck river. Detour around construction south of Scottsburg.

No. 3—Narrow bridge at Putnamville permits but one-way traffic. Narrow grade at Glenn, 3 miles east of Terre Haute should be driven carefully. (Side detours at this place).

No. 4—Detour around earth road east of Dugger. Under construction east of Bedford; detour well marked.

No. 5—Closed for tar surfacing between New Albany and Greenville. Through traffic turn right at Greenville following marked detour via Georgetown to State Road 16, joining No. 5 at State and Main streets in New Albany. Detour via Mitchell and Pauli on Nos. 41 and 22 around construction between Loogootee and West Baden.

No. 6—Closed for construction from south edge of Lebanon to Traders' Point near Indianapolis. Traffic southeast from Lebanon take Whitestown road and return to state road at Traders' Point. Lebanon-Indianapolis traffic advised to use 33 and 1. Closed for construction between New Bethel and Shelbyville with detour marked via Acton.

No. 7—Closed for about 5 miles west of Peru (portion overlapping No. 1 being paved). Detour marked.

No. 9—Detour through Jasonville around construction at that point. Detour 4 miles north of Clay City account bridge out. Grading a mile of earth road south of Brazil which traffic may use in dry weather.

No. 10—North bound traffic from Evansville use old state road via Inglesfield, thence on pavement to Fort Branch. Closed between Fort Branch and Princeton for construction. When Scholz Put Himself in "World's Fastest" Class

Jackson Scholz, the New York Athletic Club runner who has left world's records lying in a dozen pieces of late, is here shown at the Boston Olympic try-out finals, taking the 100-meter race from Charlie Paddock, "fastest human." Scholz is on extreme right and Paddock is shown in characteristic running stride on left. Both Scholz and Paddock surpassed previous Olympic marks for the 200 meters, but Scholz beat Paddock's time by two-tenths of a second.

FEWER SPEEDING ARRESTS

Less Violation of Law Following Drastic Action by Police

Indianapolis, Ind., June 20—A noticeable decrease in arrests for speeding marked the fifth day of the police war against motor law violators here today.

The decrease was attributed to sentences dealt out forty motorists yesterday ordering them to store their cars from thirty to ninety days "and drive no other automobile".

Other plans in force by police to make the battle effective is rides to the police station in the patrol wagon and requirement of bond to gain freedom until the cases are called in court.

Fifteen violators were scheduled for appearance today.

Three bodies were discovered several weeks ago and the fourth was unearthed yesterday. All showed they had been buried at least a quarter of a century.

The "Dark Secret" was known in its day as one of the most notorious resorts in Indiana. Veterans from the Old Soldiers' home here were among the persons who visited the resort and were never seen again.

The resort was closed up several years ago and all persons connected with it scattered to other sections of the country.

BRIDGE CONTRACTS HAVE BEEN OPENED

TOTAL COST IS $203,869

Indianapolis, Ind., June 20—Officials of the State highway commission were today going over bids opened this week for thirty one bridges in thirteen counties preparing to awarding contracts for the structures. The contracts will be let within the next ten days.

The total expenditure will be $203,869.77, on the basis of low bids. This total is far less than highway officials have anticipated. Estimates made by department engineers indicated the structures would cost $260,703.86.

Bridge builders in all parts of the country are entered into the competition for the contracts. Sixty-six bids were received. This is the second bridge letting of the year. Construction activities costing nearly $500,000 were contracted for at the first letting.

The most pretentious structure to be built under this letting will be a 200 foot bridge over Patoka River in Gibson county. The commission is now debating the merits of construction style following receipt of bids very near the same figure for substructure style and superstructure style.

Bidders shaved more than $5000 from the estimated cost of both style bridges. E. C. Wright, Bloomfield bid $19,045.35 to be low on the substructure. The estimate was $27,799.26.

The St. Louis Structural Steel Company bid $18,920.50 on the superstructure. The estimate was $24,788.58.

"The Breaking Point"

Herbert Brenon's "The Breaking Point" is another splendid action-romance by the man who made "The Spanish Dancer." Nita Naldi, Patsy Ruth Miller, George Fawcett and Matt Moore are featured in the production, which opened at the Princess Theatre today.

Nita Naldi plays the same kind of a campy role she had in "The Ten Commandments." Matt Moore is the hero. Miss Miller is cast as Elizabeth Wheeler, Moore's sweetheart, and George Fawcett is a kindly old doctor. Some cast!

"The Breaking Point" was extremely popular as both a book and play by Mary Roberts Rinehart. There never was a better piece of screen material written, and Julie Herne and Edfrid Bingham have done wonders with the adaptation. There are scenes the author never even thought of that go a long way to make "The Breaking Point" not only one of the most gripping, but also one of the most entertaining productions we have seen in many months.

Naturally, it's a Paramount.

Audiences who view the chill prison corridor in which occurs one phase of the action of Tom Forman's new production of "The Girl Who Came Back" soon to be seen at the Castle theatre, probably will have little conception of the infinite care required in its construction.

For this seemingly simple setting required far more effort on the part of technical experts and even proved as costly in actual financial outlay as did the big ball room setting in such productions as "Poor Men's Wives". In order to reproduce every detail of the historic prison that served as a model for the studio setting experts used photographs and sketches, drawn to scale. Not a single window, door or grating was made in the Schulberg studio mills, but were constructed by hand in order that the knobs, pegs and other details might be placed at exactly the proper distance apart.

Director Forman, who spent months at Sing Sing prison studying procedure in the big penal institution before filming "The City of Silent Men", has made a study of criminology and the modern methods of fighting crime. Many of his theories have been used before the camera for the first time in the filming of this unusual Al Lichtman attraction.

The cast with which the stage was visualized for the screen include such favorites as Miriam Cooper, Kenneth Harlan, Gaston Glass, Ebel Shannon, Joseph Dowling, Frederick Melaneta, Mary Culver, and Zazu Pitts.

Why is it that some women look older at thirty-five than others do at fifty? Why is it that so many women are always run-down, weak, pale, nervous, irritable and unhappy? Health, vitality and freedom from pain and disease alone can prevent the signs of age from fastening themselves upon women. All over this country women are awakening to the fact that the ills, aches and pains of women may be relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and the result is renewed life, energy and the glow of health. In fact, the secret of keeping young is to ward off all internal ailments that cause premature old age, which is easily accomplished by this remarkable root and herb remedy.

Naturally Mr. Carter—whose letter follows—was skeptical. He had tried practically everything for the relief of constipation. All had failed. But Kellogg's Bran brought him permanent relief, just as it has done for thousands of others. Read his letter:

Gentlemen:

I am 43 years old, and have been for years a great sufferer from constipation. I had to resign a clerical position because of rushes of blood to my head, some of which caused me to fall to the ground. I took an outdoor laboring job and tried for the first time, skeptically I admit, your Krumbled Bran. The result has been wonderful. I began to be normal after I had been on the Bran about three days. No more enemata, no more Old Dr. So-and-So's Pills, Epsom salts by the ton, etc., ad infinitum! You have the most wonderful product for constipation I have ever seen or tried. Yours very gratefully,

Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, does not irritate the intestines like drugs and pills. It acts exactly as nature acts. Eaten regularly, it is guaranteed to relieve permanently the most chronic case of constipation, or your grocer will return your money.

You will like the exclusive, nut-like flavor of Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled. Eat two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases with every meal. Eat it with milk or cream and in the recipes on every package. Sold by all grocers. Made in Battle Creek.
